

Jobie
Arnaituq

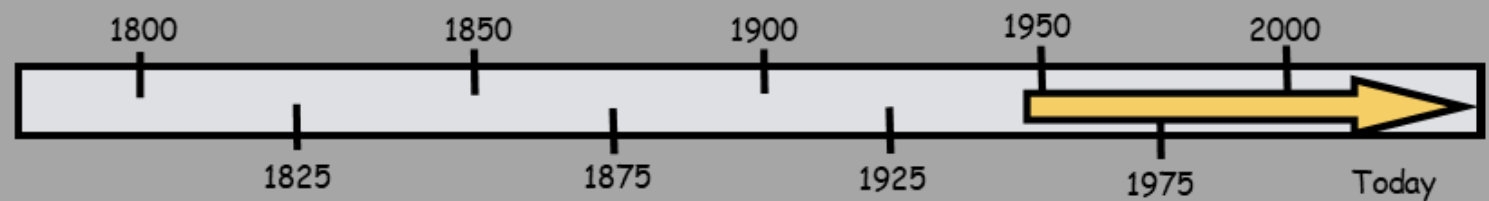

Jobie Arnaituq was born in Kangiqsujuag in 1948 and followed in his mother's footsteps when he started carving. Jobie is not only a sculptor, but he is also a printmaker and a musician. His work is exhibited in Canada and in France. His sculptures can also be found in the Inuit Art Collection of the Canadian Museum of Civilization in Gatineau.

"Man and fish"
1982

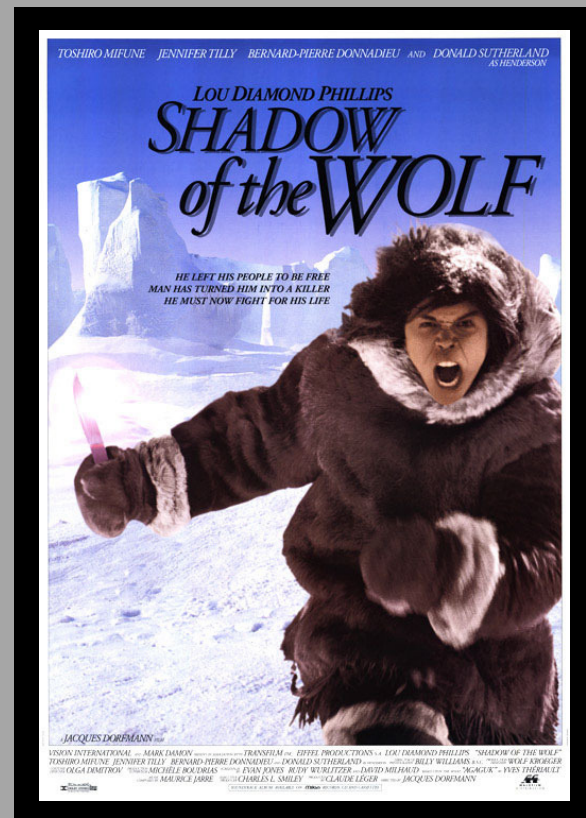

"untitled"
2006

Fun fact about the artist

Jobie Arnaituq also played a role in the movie "Shadow of the Wolf" ("Agaguk") in 1992, adding acting to his resume.

"Shadow of the wolf"
1992