

Annie was an artist from Puvirnituq. She was born in 1900 in Akua, near Puvirnituq. She spent most of her nomadic life between this community and Akulivik. Although she also did some stone carvings, she is mostly known for her stonecut prints. Her first series of prints were exhibited in the Arctic community of Cape Dorset, Nunavut. She then joined the Puvirnituq Sculptor's Society in 1960. She produced several prints between 1962 and 1973. Her artwork can be found in exhibitions in Canada, the United States and Switzerland. Her work is also featured in collections in the Canadian Museum of Civilization, in the National Gallery of Canada and in the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts.

Annie Mikpiga

"Owl and Lemming"
1968

"Young Dog"
n.d.

Fun fact about the artist

Annie only started making prints when she was about 60 years old.

"Eskimos, While Eating a Meal, Saw Caribous Coming Near Them"

1973