

Inuguiniq

Inuguiniq means "the making of a human being" and refers to the education process that seeks to develop the human being as a whole through direct engagement with the environment and the community.

Caring	At peace	Outgoing
Problem solver	Contented	Able to listen
Compassionate	Trustful	Responsible
Confident	Respected	Able
Helpful	Wise	Assertive

When you develop the context section of your lesson, consider how your lesson is contributing to the holistic development of learners through the traits associated with Inuguiniq.